MicroProfile joining Jakarta EE

- Update 2025.10.07
 - MicroProfile Steering Committee, scheduled for Sept. 30, call did not achieve quorum and has been rescheduled to Tuesday Oct. 14th.
- Updates from MicroProfile Steering Committee Discussion
- Previous context
 - Steering Committee Discussion 2025.09.09:
 - There was some question about the JESP language that may require name-space choices.
 - David Blevins suggested that the Specification Committee had in the past mutually agreed `jakarta` would be the required namespace and groupId.
 - The committee asked that he please find the relevant Jakarta EE process documents to identify where there is text that needs to be reviewed.
 - David also suggested he was surprised that the namespace topic was considered concluded without a resolution.
 - The committee asked David Blevins to please review the e-mail history, the various straw polls, and previous meeting minutes, to see if his assertion remains.
 - Dominica requested access to the Spec. committee meeting minutes log
 - She has confirmed that she has the necessary access
 - Discussion also at today's EE Platform meeting.
 - Emily has volunteered to write a proposal for the two working groups to merge their efforts.
 - Funding discussion – Update from Marcin
 - Marcin has prepared a document that captures the main points that have been raised. Please review his note, here.
 - We will have discussion on these points at the meeting.
 - Request that Marcin review the comments that have been entered. Also, to please focus this document on the topic of Funding, specifically as it relates to the proposed Charter update from Davie Blevins (link below).
 - Previous discussion (2025.09.09):
 - Marcin presented his findings in the linked note.
 - There were clarifying comments and discussion in the meeting.
 - Implementations and Specifications are currently included in the Jakarta EE Charter. This may not be clear to all members.

- We briefly looked directly at the Charter Update edit as proposed by D. Blevins (linked below) and there was some discussion. The discussion had to be closed off due to time, without allowing for conclusion.
 - Points raised include:
 - We have not found suitable replacement implementations that are consistently willing to work to the time-lines of the Jakarta EE Working Group.
 - Should this working group actively promote / mentor community member participation in just EE4J implementation projects? Why not WELD (CDI implementation), or JBatch (Batch implementation)?
 - Should the working group remove the implementation projects that are currently named “Eclipse <project>” (e.g. Eclipse GlassFish) from Jakarta EE Working Group?
 - Ed Bratt raised the history that the original rationale for tight coupling between the specification and an implementation is this is believed to force higher quality specifications and prevent instances where specifications describe features (or combinations of features) that could not be fully realized and finally, provide vendor assurances that implementations can actually be written.
 - Suggested action for next meeting:
 - Ed recommended we rename this to ‘Proposed Working Group Charter Change’ – Remove charter elements that include implementations.
 - Marcin, please continue to refine your overview document.
 - Members, please review the material here and linked below and be prepared for further discussion about the proposed update to the Jakarta EE Working Group Charter.
- Previous discussion:
 - Some discussion about funding – in specific funding GlassFish discussion about vendor favoritism. E-mail link needed. Discussion about the definition of “Vendor”. Some ideas that creating a separate working group for GlassFish and maybe related projects. Marcin is willing to take this up as a discussion for this committee. Will create an action for the next meeting to continue and start a structured discussion about keeping GlassFish
 - Charter update from D. Blevins
 - Discussion thread – for D. Blevins Proposal (Subject: [jakarta.ee-community] MicroProfile, Jakarta EE, GlassFish/EE4J)
 - Slack Thread on Namespace / process – (This thread is discussion about Namespace requirements and if we need to make working group process changes)
- Discussion (2025.09.25)
 - Resolution mentioned in Sept 9th minutes passed by the Specification Committee on the September 3rd meeting.
 - Emily to draft proposal to send to the platform dev list with a way forward with regards to namespace and migrating projects

- Ed Burns:
 - Does not see anything controversial with replacing EE4J with Jakarta EE
 - If there are any unintentional changes to updating the charter, we could update the charter again.
- Alasdair:
 - Concerns there may be something we haven't anticipated from an Eclipse perspective that may affect implementation delivery that would slow us down.
- All agreed we would need to review the mentoring program scope.
- Dominika:
 - Positive support from Payara, would vote +1
